

R-34 READY FOR RETURN TRIP

WILSON WILL ADDRESS SENATE ONLY THURSDAY

GIANT BRITISH DIRIGIBLE IS SLIGHTLY DAMAGED PREPARING FOR VOYAGE BACK TO SCOTLAND

Lighter-Than-Air Craft, Following History - Making Journey Across Atlantic, Probably Will Speed Off For Europe Tuesday.

HAND-RAIL OF REAR GONDOLA IS SMASHED

Dirigible-Balloonets Will Receive Fresh Supply of Gas -- Mechanics Make Repairs to Airship, While Crew Visit New York.

Mineola, L. I., July 7.—A hole 20 feet long and 10 feet wide was torn in the nose of the giant British dirigible R-34 today in a battle between nearly a thousand men and the aircraft which was being whipped by a 30-mile gale and in imminent danger of tearing from her moorings.

The gas in the balloonets became overheated in the forenoon sun and the big airship suddenly shot skyward. Four hundred men were clinging to her right anchor ropes and hundreds of others were clinging to the forward and aft gondolas.

The gondolas were torn from their grasp as the dirigible sped upward and a rope attached to the nose of the R-34 was torn away, pulling with it a big piece of the silk fabric. The operators on the cable winches reeled in their slack as quickly as possible and finally halted the floating airship when she was 200 feet above ground. After half an hour's tussle, the dirigible was again brought to earth and the work of repairing the rent began.

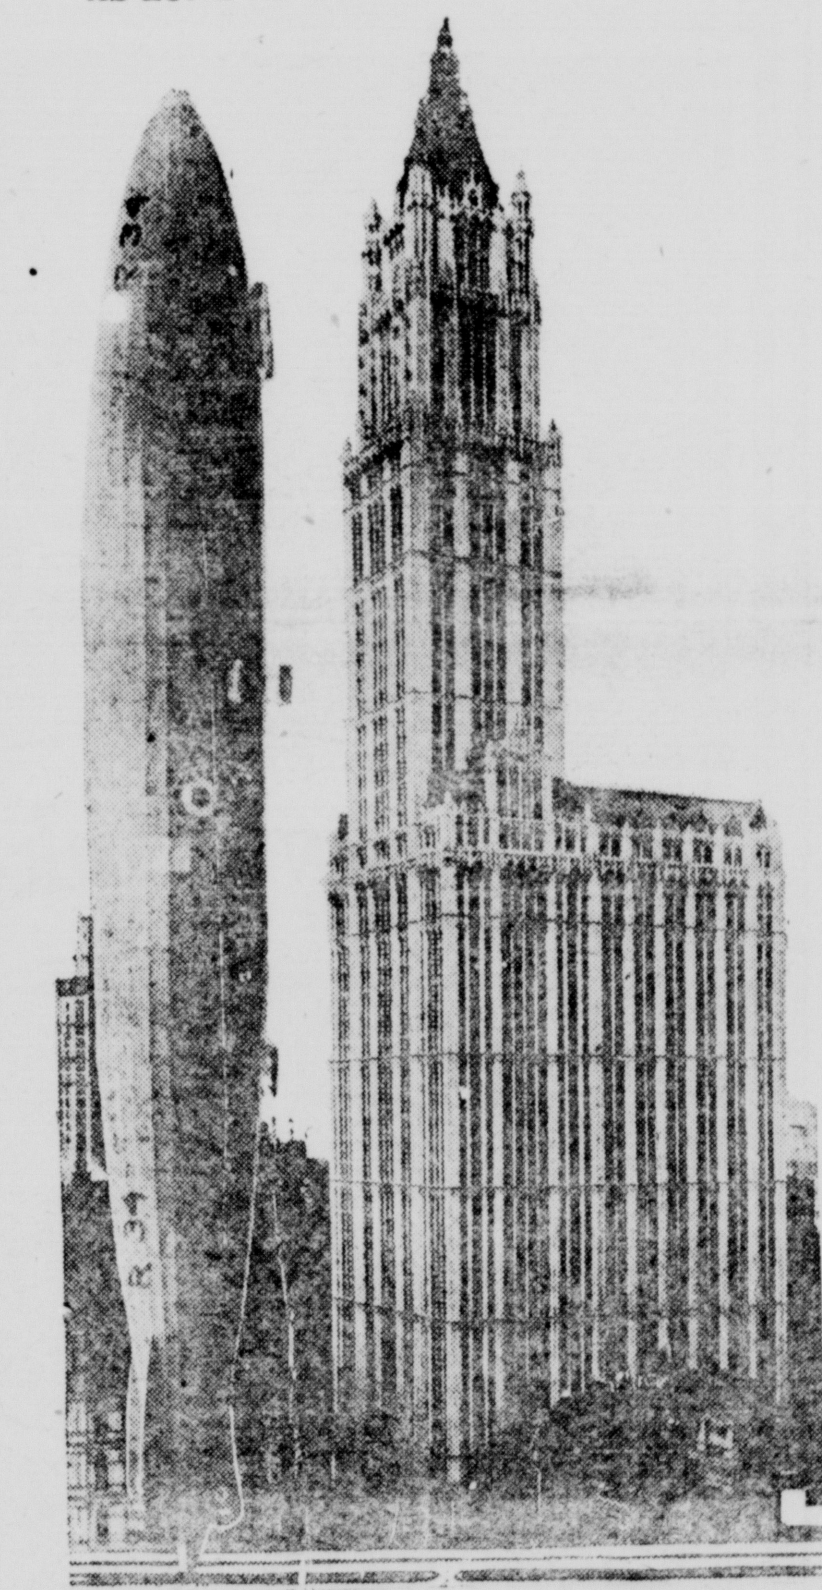

Major G. H. Scott, commander of the R-34, with British and American flying officers, looked over the ship after the accident.

"We must get out of here as soon as possible," he said, "tomorrow morning at the very latest."

Lieut. Colonel Frederick A. Lucas, representing the British air ministry, announced this afternoon that unless there is an unexpected change in plans the R-34 will start back to the British Isles at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

"It is not likely that the dirigible will fly over New York, Philadelphia

HUGE BRITISH DIRIGIBLE IS ALMOST AS LONG AS WOOLWORTH TOWER IS HIGH

An excellent idea of the tremendous size of the British dirigible R-34, which has just flown across the Atlantic ocean, is gained by comparing its length with the height of the Woolworth tower. Its 643 feet would reach from the fourth story to within a few stories of the top, as shown in the photograph.

PUT BAN ON FIGHT FILMS

Two Members of the Censor Board Reject Champ Bout Pictures.

Columbus, July 7.—The Willard-Dempsey fight films will not be shown in Ohio. Two members of the state movie censor board, Mrs. Maud Murray Miller and Maurice Hague today reviewed the film and rejected it. Charles Williams, third member of the board, was not present.

"After viewing this film, Mr. Hague and I are convinced that it is not a film that should be seen by the youth of the state," said Mrs. Miller.

"We are aware that it was shown in Cleveland Sunday. The explanation offered was that the film had been advertised and that the theater was packed, awaiting word from the owners of the film from Columbus. We accepted this explanation and were assured that no further attempts would be made to exhibit the film. In the film is being shown in Cleveland or elsewhere in Ohio today, arrests will follow," Mrs. Miller said.

HIGH LIGHTS IN R-34'S CRUISE

In mid-ocean a tall iceberg suddenly appeared in the R-34's path. Fearing the effect of its chilliness on the sun-heated gas bag, the R-34 tilted her nose upward and hurdled the ice mountain like a jumper leaping a fence. In the same manner she hurdled fog banks.

At one period in her flight, the R-34 sped through clear atmosphere with a cloud layer above and another below.

In Saturday night's battle with the storm over the Bay of Fundy, the airship was suddenly tossed aloft 500 feet by an unexpected wind blow. Her skeleton framework creaked and it was feared she might break in two.

On one occasion rainbows completely circled the ship. White fogs cast strange reflections.

Lieut. Shottler looked from his cabin and thought he saw another man staring at him. It was his own reflection on the fog.

Excepting W. W. Ballantyne, the world's first aeronautical stowaway who hid himself aboard the R-34 before she started, all members of her crew slept in hammocks, working four-hour shifts.

Cold meats, an occasional steak, pudding cooked on the engine exhaust, cold boiled eggs, hot beef tea and coffee comprised the menu. The R-34's officers denied they had taken precautions against war-time prohibition in America, declaring they brought only one bottle of brandy for medicinal use and that it was not opened.

A phonograph entertained the crew with wild jazz music amid the clouds. Feminine selections, "to make us feel that a woman was around," were the favorites, the crew said.

Every man aboard had plenty of exercise, walking up and down the 65-foot shell. One man complained that he walked his legs off. The greatest hardship was the fact that they couldn't smoke because of the danger of exploding the hydrogen gas.

A tortoise-shell cat, the only live mascot aboard, enjoyed the trip immensely.

CAPTAIN IS ON HIS WAY HOME

Malcolm Thompson Expected In New York Next Friday.

Captain Malcolm Thompson, field artillery, will arrive in New York City Friday, July 12, aboard the transport Finisterre, according to a cablegram received today by the father, John C. Thompson of Thompson boulevard. After a long period of active service at the front in France Captain Thompson was detailed to Oxford university, England, where for three months he pursued a course in economics. He boarded the Finisterre at Brest, France.

Among the soldiers who have returned to their homes in East Liverpool recently are Otto H. Kommel, Chester Beck, William Higginbottom and Edward Stivason.

THE WEATHER.

Ohio: Fair and moderate temperature tonight and Tuesday. W. Va.: Fair tonight and Tuesday; cooler tonight.

UNLIKELY TO START SPEAKING TOUR FOR AT LEAST TWO WEEKS

CAR PROBERS DEBATE FARES ON THURSDAY

Call Meeting in Effort to Settle Trolley Dispute.

7-CENT FARE ISSUE

Will Consider Recommendation Of Trades and Labor Council.

The triple labor-commercial-municipal traction situation investigating committee will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at the call of Chairman J. T. Croxall to consider the recommendation of Trades and Labor Council that a seven cent cash fare or 17 tickets for $1 be charged on all East Liverpool and Wellsville trolley lines as well as between East Liverpool and Wellsville.

Chairman Croxall has been notified that Wellsville representatives will attend the meeting of the triple committee in East Liverpool for the purpose of seeking to arrive at an agreement between the two cities on one hand and with Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company on the other, regarding a schedule of fares.

The triple committee of East Liverpool sometime ago recommended a five cent fare on East Liverpool city lines with a charge of one cent for a transfer; a seven-cent fare on inter-urban cars between the Broadway terminal and the Ohio-Pennsylvania state line and a seven-cent fare to Chester.

The Chamber of Commerce endorsed this recommendation, which is regarded as meaning a ten-cent fare between East Liverpool and Wellsville, but Trades and Labor council instead of endorsing the triple committee schedule, proposed a system of fares that would require the man taking but a short ride to pay the same as a man riding from the lower end of Wellsville to the upper end of East Liverpool.

CLAIMS NEW IS SENATOR'S SON

Mrs. Lulu Burger Speeding Westward to Aid of Man Accused of Killing Sweetheart in Los Angeles.

Chicago, July 7.—Stoutly maintaining that Harry S. New, Jr., who is under arrest in Los Angeles as the slayer of Miss Freda Leaser, his sweetheart, is the son of United States Senator Harry S. New of Indiana Mrs. Lulu Burger, mother of the accused slayer, is speeding westward today to aid him. She passed through Chicago on the way from Indianapolis to Los Angeles late yesterday.

"Harry's father is United States Senator Harry S. New of Indiana," the mother declared, reiterating former statements. "Mr. New and I were married a long time ago when I was a young girl and we have been divorced 18 years."

Mrs. Burger declared all her resources will be placed at the disposal of her son and that her object in going to Los Angeles now is to obtain the best possible legal counsel and lend him every assistance.

Mrs. Burger said she knew very little of the slain girl and that her son had met her only two or three months ago.

Senator New, Mrs. Burger declared, will come to her son's aid despite reports from Washington that the senator has denied any marriage with Mrs. Burger and has asserted her son has no claim upon him.

Young New, his mother declared, was educated at Culver Military academy and at Notre Dame university and went to California four years ago for his health after he had been discharged from the army.

New York, July 7.—The transport George Washington, bringing President Wilson back from France, is making good progress and will dock in Hoboken at 1:10 tomorrow afternoon, two hours ahead of her schedule, said a wireless message from the transport this afternoon.

Washington, July 7.—President Wilson's address at the capitol on Thursday will be to the senate only. Secretary Tammity at New York today advised the white house. The president will appear before the upper house at 12:15 to lay before it the peace treaty, with the league of nations covenant incorporated and the proposed pact by which America, with Great Britain, would go to the assistance of France in the event of an "unprovoked" attack on her by Germany.

Indications now are, while house officials said, that the president will be unable to start his proposed speaking tour for at least two weeks after his arrival in Washington. There have been many requests that the president's itinerary include an address at the Methodist centenary at Columbus but as the closing session will be held on July 13, it was pointed out that the president probably will be unable to accept it.

It is known that many of the president's friends have advised him to abandon the speaking tour entirely, or for the present at least. They have urged him, it was learned, at least to wait until after it becomes apparent what the senate will do with reference to the treaty and the league covenant before going before the people.

The president will leave New York tomorrow night about 5 o'clock, arriving in Washington between 10 and 11 o'clock. Plans for his reception here were being made today and one of the features will be the erection of an arch in the Union station, through which he will pass on the way to his waiting automobile.

MURDERERS OF EDITH CAVELL, CAPT. FRYATT TO BE JAILED

Will Be Brought to England And Lodged in Tower Of London.

TO ARREST OTHERS

Trials of Accused Are Expected To Open In August.

BULLETIN

Berlin, July 7.—Field Marshal Hindenburg has addressed an open letter to Marshal Foch, begging him to use his influence to save the ex-kaiser from trial by the allies. He repeats his offer to substitute himself for the former emperor for trial.

London, July 7.—Steps are being taken to obtain the extradition of the former kaiser for trial in London, though no formal representations have yet been made to Holland. Bonar Law announced in the house of commons this afternoon.

Sir Henry Dabzel asked if any "unofficial communications" had passed. Bonar Law said he preferred not to answer the question.

Lieut. Col. Murray asked the government leader if he was aware that "no one wishes the former kaiser brought here." Approving cries of "Hear! hear!" greeted Murray's interpellation, but Bonar Law made no reply.

London, July 7.—Prominent German officials, alleged to have been implicated in the murders of Nurse Edith Cavell and Captain Fryatt in Belgium, probably will be brought to England within the next few days and lodged in the Tower of London, the Daily Express says today. Other prisoners intended for the tower include commanders of German prison camps responsible for the deliberate murder of defenceless British soldiers, it was stated by the Daily Express.

These trials are expected to open in August if the preliminary arrangements can be completed in that time.

The telegram from Prince Eitel Frederick pledging the willingness of himself and his three younger brothers to stand trial instead of their father—the former kaiser—had not been received at Buckingham palace today. Officials were unwilling to venture any opinion as to the procedure if the telegram was received.

CLEVELAND IS HIT BY STRIKE

Chamber of Commerce Meets To Consider Trolley Situation.

Cleveland, July 7.—The chamber of commerce was called into session this afternoon by its president, Paul Fels, to take steps toward ending the street car strike which has completely tied up traffic here. Before the meeting he conferred with President Stanley of the Cleveland Railway company. He also asked Mayor Davis to call city council into special session late today.

The first disorder was reported today when an effort was made to send out a work crew from the Dennison avenue barns. The motorman was assaulted, but he managed to take the car back to the barns.

City officials planned this afternoon to take court action if the strike is not ended by tomorrow. Mandamus proceedings may be instituted to force the company to meet the men's demands or a receivership may be asked.

COUNTY NEWS

WHITE BILL UNTANGLES KNOTS IN STATE LAW

Lisbon, July 5.—Counties will find it possible to send mental defectives to the state institutions again due to the passage of the White bill untangling knots in the commitment laws. A copy of the bill has just been received at the sheriff's office.

The attorney general so interpreted the old commitment law that many feeble-minded cases legally could not come under jurisdiction of probate courts. The board of administration, however, would accept only cases passed by probate courts. As a result commitments were stopped in some counties. Generally this was not true in Columbiana county.

Probate courts now have jurisdiction. The measure also gives the board of administration authority to establish new institutions for the feeble minded.

PLEADS GUILTY; COURT SUSPENDS PRISON TERM

Lisbon, July 7.—Charles Bernadine, who was indicted by the last grand jury for the theft of the automobile of Ed Stratton of Salem was arraigned before Judge J. G. Moore and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary, but upon payment of the costs and his promise to work on the county highways for six months the penitentiary sentence was suspended.

Bernadine, whose home is in Canton, took the Stratton machine from in front of the Friends' church. He then drove to Canonsburg, Pa. When he learned that officers from this county were searching for him he came himself up. The machine was returned without damage.

Rossie Is Sane.

Lisbon, July 7.—After hearing the evidence in the lunacy case against Charles Rossie, Salem Italian, who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Crawford last week, Probate Judge Crawford decided that Rossie was not insane. Testimony showed that Rossie's troubles had been domestic and he was advised by Judge Crawford to abstain from fighting both his family and his neighbors. Rossie's wife says that the accused threatened her life upon several occasions and that she was afraid of him.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Lisbon, July 7.—Charged with embezzlement Frank Spiller, who recently moved to Lisbon from Pennsylvania, was arrested and taken back to Houston. Italian detectives from Detroit and Houston traced Spiller here and Officer Lewton made the arrest. Spiller is charged with having embezzled $1,800 from the miners' union. He had recently removed his family to this city.

Rankin Is Jailed.

Lisbon, July 7.—Secretly indicted by the last grand jury for non-support, Lee Rankin of Wellsville was arrested in Pittsburgh by Sheriff William Dalrymple and brought to the county jail.

Rankin is charged with failure to provide for his three minor children, who are residing in Wellsville with their mother. Rankin has been in Pittsburgh for some time past.

No County Men Pardoned.

Lisbon, July 5.—Not a Columbiana county prisoner was pardoned from the Ohio penitentiary by the board of clemency at its July meeting held in Columbus. Fifty-four prisoners were paroled and of those who go out on trial all have positions to go to. In all 84 applications were considered.

Married in Salem.

Lisbon, July 7.—Securing a marriage license E. D. Hall and Miss Starbrick, both of near New Waterford, were married in Salem. Mr. Hall is a well known farmer of Middleton township. A reception and dinner was given at his home.

Turns Clocks Back.

Columbiana, July 7.—Finding itself greatly inconvenienced with its present time, this village has turned back its clocks one hour and will operate on Central time.

so much better. "I simply will not have mother cooking in this heat," declared Susan.

"What'll become of the sweet tooth of the family if I stop?" Susan replied, looking at the pre-arranged young faces around her.

"I'll show her at dinner to-night," Susan finished her luncheon silently and went to the kitchen.

"Seven packages of National Biscuit Company Zu Zu Ginger Snaps please, and a jar of marshmallow whip," she ordered.

"Mother, we're not eating cake in half an hour," Susan said, looking into the barrel of sweetener.

"What's the matter with you?" Susan asked, looking at the girl's face.

"I'm just a little bit hungry," Susan replied, looking at the girl's face.

TO CELEBRATE MASS AT WEST POINT JULY 20

Lisbon, July 7.—For the first time in the history of West Point, mass will be celebrated here on Sunday, July 20. Rev. Father Boeche, pastor of St. George's Catholic church of Lisbon and the Dunganon church, will be celebrant. It is probable that many of the Lisbon congregation will attend the services.

Plans are being perfected for the opening of a mission at West Point. A Lisbon pastor will possibly be installed within a short time who will have charge of both churches. For years the pastor of St. George's church has resided at Dunganon.

West Point will also have a church constructed within a short time, when services will be held there every Sunday.

Plan Community House.

Columbiana, July 7.—This village is planning to incorporate a stock company for the purpose of erecting a community club house. The capital stock will be $15,000.

NO TRACE OF RABIES

A communication received late Saturday evening from the state bacteriological department by Dr. J. M. Chetwynd, city health officer, announces that no evidence of hydrophobia was found in the head of the dog sent from this city recently for examination. Three persons in West Second street were bitten last week by dogs, believed to have been suffering from rabies. Two dogs were shot, the head of one being sent to Columbus for examination.

E. LIVERPOOL IN THE MOVIES

Early this afternoon the Chamber of Commerce secured the film taken of the Pittsburgh Trade Extension Tour. It was rushed to the Ceramic theater in time for the first show today. So great was the enthusiasm of the large crowd present, that the Ceramic management secured the picture for the entire engagement of "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo," the Fairbanks picture, which runs the first four days of this week.

President Betz of the Chamber of Commerce, and Chief McDermott are among those caught by the camera. You will see many people whom you know, for the picture gives different moving views of the main streets of East Liverpool during their daylight activity. The film shows many features of the Pittsburgh party's visit, including the automobile parade.

HIGH LIGHTS

When she reached Mineola, after battling with the storm, she had less than half an hour's supply of gasoline.

Major Pritchard declared that England is now building dirigibles twice the size of the R-34 and that the R-34 may now be considered "obsolete."

CAR PROBERS

It had been expected that the East Liverpool City council at its last meeting in June would have taken definite action by introducing an ordinance fixing a fare schedule, but when it was found that Trades and Labor council did not agree with the recommendations of the triple committee, city council in a letter to W. I. Lewis, secretary of the committee, in effect declined to act until the triple committee should have worked out a plan that will meet the approval of all parties concerned.

Finally father summed up the situation:

"Mother," he said, "I'm going to shock your pride and add several teeth to your life. You do no more cooking this summer; let Susan pre-arrange the young faces around her."

Mother was hurt a little, but pride in her daughter's success and relief from a duty that became more and more onerous, overcame that.

"Where did you learn the trick?" father asked Susan.

"At school," the girl replied. "I've been doing it for a long time."

"You're just a little bit hungry," Susan replied, looking at the girl's face.

"You're just a little bit hungry," Susan replied, looking at the girl's face.

GIANT DRIGIBLE

or Washington before starting back," said Lucas, "with all the skyscrapers and high buildings it might be dangerous to fly over New York. We have our business to attend to and that is to get the R-34 back as soon as possible."

Mineola, L. I., July 7.—The giant British dirigible R-34 first lighter-than-air craft to cross the Atlantic, was slightly damaged early today while she was being refilled with hydrogen gas at Roosevelt Field, preparatory to setting off on the return to Europe early tomorrow.

Sudden gusts of cold air, following last night's rainstorm, caused the gas in the dirigible's balloons to contract. The rear of the monster airship began to settle and the handrail of the rear gondola was smashed.

A large force of men rushed to the side of the R-34 as she rolled unsteadily in the breeze. Sixty men seized the rear gondola and steadied her until the ropes could be eased off. Then the stern of the ship was allowed to rise slowly until she was 100 feet above the surface of the ground. There she remained with great searchlights playing upon her until daylight today, when the refilling of the gas bags was recommenced.

The sky was slightly overcast today and sharp winds blew across the flying field, causing the air giant to ride a bit roughly at her anchorage. The weather men at the flying field were receiving reports hourly and keeping a sharp lookout for any signs of bad weather, fearing that a sudden storm might tear the R-34 from her moorings or crush her against the earth. More than 100 men surrounded her at all times, and she was ready to cast off and climb to safety above the storm at a moment's notice.

The dirigible's balloons will have received their fresh supply of gas early this afternoon. Mechanics spent the forenoon replacing the smashed hand rail on the rear gondola and making other repairs. Before nightfall the R-34 will be ready for the 3,000 mile flight back to Scotland.

Major Scott commander of the R-34, anticipated little trouble on the return trip.

"We shall start just before daybreak Tuesday, if the weather favors," he said. "We shall have westerly winds at our back most of the way and should make much better time than in crossing. We expect to be home again before Friday night."

It was reported around the field this morning that the R-34 might depart from her anchorage and start on the return to the British Isles late this afternoon if the weather was found favorable. Officials would not confirm the report though they said it was possible Major Scott might change his mind if the mechanics had completed their work.

The R-34 will sail down over New York City immediately after her start, soaring over the metropolis for a few minutes before heading home. Requests have come from Boston Philadelphia and other eastern cities for flights but it is unlikely that the dirigible will pass over any of these towns, excepting possibly Boston, on the return home.

It is possible that the British airship will pass over the heads of President Wilson and members of the presidential party, returning home aboard the George Washington tomorrow forenoon. The George Washington will be approaching New York harbor as the R-34 sails out.

Shortly after daybreak today a great stream of spectators began pouring into Mineola to catch a glimpse of the R-34. Thousands made their way to the flying field in the early forenoon.

DEATH ROLL

CHARLES A. GOODWIN.

Charles Alfred Goodwin, aged 20, succumbed Saturday evening at 7:20 o'clock at his home on May street, to a lingering illness from a complication of diseases. He is survived by his wife and a five-year-old child; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Goodwin, of Wellsville; three brothers, James with the air service in France; Richard and Edward at home.

The funeral will be from St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Difford officiating. Interment will be in Spring Hill cemetery.

Friends may view the body Monday evening. (Carrollton and other papers please copy.)

THREE MINERS KILLED

Fayette City, Pa., July 7.—Three miners were killed and seven injured, two probably fatally, when the roof of the O'Neill mine of the Pittsburgh Coal company fell on them here today. Nearly 800 men back of the fan were imprisoned for two hours until the debris had been removed.

RIOTING IN BRESCIA

London, July 7.—One person has been killed and several wounded in rioting in Brescia, said a news agency dispatch from Rome today. Order has now been restored at Florence, but looting continues in Milan. Socialists are disclaiming responsibility for the disturbance.

How to Invest

How to make surplus funds yield as large an interest return as is consistent with safety is the problem which confronts the investor. Before buying stocks or bonds it is the safest policy to consult an individual or institution familiar with investment securities. The service of our Bond Department is yours for the asking. NEW MEASURING SYSTEM HERE

Measuregraphs Are Installed At The Sloan-Buchan Store.

The art of measuring has changed since mother was a girl. Or, to go back still further, it has changed since King Henry I. of England first decreed a yard as the distance from the tip of the nose to the end of the thumb. If you don't believe it go down to the Sloan-Buchan store and see their new measuring machines—they're called. These measuregraphs, the first of their kind installed here, are really remarkable instruments. They combine the refinement of the watch, the unfailing accuracy of the adding machine and the precision of scientific instruments. The machines measure fabrics, compute the cost, cut the cloth at precisely the right place, thus eliminating waste and assuring the purchaser of full measurement.

The measuregraph sets on a small track on the inside edge of the counter over which the fabrics are sold. It is a small machine, not much larger than a check photograph. It is moved from one end of the counter to the other according to the convenience of the saleslady. The fabric selected by the customer is run through a small opening. The saleslady presses a button and the cloth starts to move through the machine. A registering dial on top of the machine shows the progress of the fabric. If the buyer orders three yards, the saleslady presses the button and stops the run when the dial shows that much measured off. Then she presses another button and a notch is made in the goods indicating where it is to be cut off. Above the dial is a computing chart which instantly shows the saleslady the amount of the sale.

The automatic measuring machines at the Sloan-Buchan store will do away with the old system of measuring fabrics with yardsticks or markers on the counter. No more will there be a chance for errors of the saleslady in the old way of measuring by separate yard lengths.

The machines which promise to attract a lot of attention were installed by G. R. Marshall of the Measuregraph company of St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Fiber Hostess.

Miss Ocy Fiber entertained a number of girls, employees of the Bell telephone exchange at East Liverpool at a week end party at her home.

Among the guests were Misses Marie Gruber, Louise Baur, Faustina Scott, Leota Wynn and Iverna Moore. Saturday night a short program of music and games was carried out.

Non-Support Charged.

Charged with failure to support his three minor children, who are now residing with their mother in Pittsburgh, Lee Rankin of this city was arrested in Lisbon Saturday by Sheriff Dalrymple.

K. of S. Meeting.

Members of Wellsville council No. 1522, Knights and Ladies of Security, will meet Tuesday evening at their hall. Following the regular lodge meeting a program will be carried out in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones.

Entertained Hospital Nurses.

A number of nurses from the East Liverpool City hospital were guests of Mrs. Harry Craft Sunday evening at her home in Commerce street. A 6 o'clock dinner was the feature of the evening.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a grateful change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundown," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire elementary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid sallow complexion and who are constipated very often are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels

The girl was located at Niles Sunday morning.

PASS FAKE $20 CHECK

Claiming that he was "hard up" and needed the money, a man by the name of Buzzard, wearing the uniform of the United States army, Saturday night presented a check for $20 to the proprietor of the Vought confectionery store on Main street, below Seventeenth street, to be turned into negotiable currency.

The check, said Mr. Vought, bore the name of William Bailey, who resides on Nevada street, and was drawn on a Pittsburgh bank. Believing the soldier's story, he gave him the $20. Later it was discovered that the check was worthless and charges were filed against Bailey by Mr. Vought. The local police upon investigation, discovered that Bailey had not presented the check. Police in East Liverpool and nearby towns have been notified to be on the lookout for Buzzard.

MUST PEN UP COWS.

Numerous complaints from the west end of the city in regard to cows and other animals being allowed to run at large, destroying gardens and other property will result in two hearings Monday evening at the city hall.

Mayor Imbrie issued a warning that owners of such animals must keep them securely tied.

Inspect Guard Units.

Columbus, July 7.—Federal officers of the Halitic bureau have completed their inspection of Ohio's skeleton national guard organization and have passed favorably upon the units. A requisition for equipment for 550 members has been made by Adjutant General Layton.

In speaking of the reorganization of the Ohio guard, General Layton said: "We have completed our first part of the program and I believe the guard will be all that is expected. It is hard work to get the units up to the standard required, but the spirit being shown is conclusive evidence that Ohio will have every reason to feel proud of the organization when completed. Some of the old boys are returning and many of the younger men of the state are joining for the training and experience the guard will afford."

Combination Heater and Cooler

A DISTINCTLY NEW DEPARTURE IN GAS STOVE CONSTRUCTION

Reduce Your Gas Bills One Half Price Only $12

Are made of the best sheet steel. The top surface of the stove will boil or fry at any point on it, the oven will roast, or broil meat, make toast, bake potatoes, apples, beans, puddings, etc.

The top surface including the two warming shelves is 432 square inches, giving you as much top surface as an ordinary gas range.

The average four-burner gas range consumes 80 feet of gas per hour, while cooking in four utensils and using oven at the same time.

The Little Wonder has but one burner, of special make, constructed on scientific principles, with a simple adjustable valve, enabling you to cook in four utensils and use the oven at the same time, and when following our directions will burn only 16 to 24 feet of gas per hour according to localities. The Little Wonder is equipped so it may be attached with 1/4-inch pipe or common rubber hose and may be moved at will.

If you ever see a Little Wonder in operation, you will ask why they were not made before.

MINERS WERE PATRIOTIC.

Reports received by the Department of Labor concerning the performance of American labor during the war show that the miners of the Fayette county coke region, in Pennsylvania, did splendid work in supporting the government's production program, increasing coal production by 100,000 tons a week with a constantly diminishing labor supply.

Increased personal efficiency, temporary elimination of church and national holidays, and united effort and co-operation to keep plants at the highest possible efficiency through prevention of accidents which might cause shut-downs were among the expedients adopted to keep production at the top notch during the war. Not only did the men of Fayette county enter wholeheartedly into the government's war program, but they subscribed $32,000,000 to the Liberty Bond drives and contributed heavily to the Red Cross and other funds. The women also did their full share.

There was not one labor disturbance during the war, and although many of the miners were born in enemy lands, the spirit of devotion to America was remarkable. It was only necessary that they be told what the nation needed. Whatever it might be, it was promptly forthcoming.

The Liberty Loans brought literally millions of hoarded gold from secret caches in tin cans and other hiding places. There were record war gardens all through the county.

The menace of the influenza epidemic to production was recognized and the most effective measures possible were adopted against it. In every possible way the miners showed their patriotism and backed up on the industrial field the soldiers who were serving in France.

GIFTS ACROSS THE OCEAN.

Towns in England and the United States having the same names have embarked on violent interchange of friendly gifts. Boston, New England, and Boston, England, began it. Bennington, Vt., and a Bennington across the Atlantic have exchanged courtesies. The Stars and Stripes now hang side by side with the Union Jack in the English Bennington, and the Union Jack is arriving in the Vermont Bennington, where it will probably be displayed in a place of honor.

It is a pretty custom in which there can be no harm, and which is calculated to foster an intimate and friendly feeling between the inhabitants of the gift-giving cities. Wherever there is any direct historical connection between the Old World town and the settling of its namesake in this country, the connection ought to be made known. That kind of history is particularly interesting, since it gives a more personal view of the people who made it.

Keep the friendly gifts and good-will greetings coming and going between the Old World and the New. It is a good habit to form, that of being pleasant to neighbors, even when they are thousands of miles away.

FOOD MONOPOLY.

One of the big Chicago packing houses announced recently, in a public statement, with a great show of humility and modesty, that it only controlled about 12 per cent of basic foodstuffs consumed in the United States.

Only one-eighth of all the beef, pork, lard and various other necessities of life required by 105,000,000 people! And this was only one of the five big corporations which dominate not only the meat industry of the country, but many industries with which packers have no natural connection.

A recent report of the Federal Trade Commission shows that these master-packers, along with their "monopolistic control over the buying and selling meat markets of the United States," have extended their control over eggs, poultry, cheese, vegetable oil products and other substitutes for meat and meat products, and also rice, fish and many other necessary food materials.

"The actual and potential powers of these corporate groups and individuals," adds the report, "are far greater and much more menacing to the welfare and true prosperity of the nation than the enumeration of industrial possessions would indicate."

"This greater menace lies in the fact that the 'Big Five' have entrenched themselves in what may be called the strategic positions of control of food distribution. These positions serve not only to protect the controls which big packers have already acquired, but to insure their easy conquest of new fields."

The report then enumerates stockyards, terminal roads, cattle-loan banks, market papers, private refrigerator car lines for the transportation of all kinds of perishable food, cold storage plants, branch distributing houses, banks and many other important factors, all of which amount to "bulwarks of monopoly."

It is time that serious attention be given to this situation. The monopolistic evils of the railroad industry and many other big industries have been corrected, or are in process of correction. The alleged food monopoly touches the public more vitally than any of the other monopolies ever did, and must be handled accordingly.

LET GERMANY WORK.

At last there are some slight signs that Germany is coming to her senses. Says the Taglis de Rundschau of Berlin:

"What we need is a despot to compel the nation to work. If we are unable to install him, our enemies will send him."

"That is the plain, simple truth. The former Kaiser has been at work ever since the armistice, saying nothing and sawing wood—the most useful and profitable undertaking of his whole life. What the German nation needs is to do likewise."

To make the Allies some small measure of recompense for the evil done them, to restore their own country to something of its former prosperity and comfort and to make their own future tolerable and respectable, the Germans must stop whining, stop talking of revenge, stop their eternal preparations for war, and go to work patiently and constructively.

Honest work is in itself a cleansing force. Through honest work and discreet silence Germany may in time wipe out the memory of her evil past and renovate her own soul. And it will be much better for her to do it of her own free will, in voluntary penance, than under the compulsion of the nations she has wronged.

Women's Envelope Union Suits Regular Sizes $1.00. Extra Large Sizes $1.25

We are showing at our Underwear Section a special lot of these fine ribbed Summer Union Suits in white and pink colors at $1.00 for the regular sizes and $1.25 for the extra large sizes. Just new are the women's athletic style knit Union Suits, with straight lines and all the comfort of men's Union Suits; white or pink. Regular sizes $1.35; extra large sizes $1.50.

"Rockinchair" Athletic Undewear For Men

Feels as though you had no underwear on at all. Think of the comfort of a cool nainsook suit; think of the comfort of that closed seat and crotch, no split to open of flaps to bunch up. The opening is down the side of the right leg. The wonderfully cool comfort of Rockinchair is in the design and an exclusive method of sizing that means proper fit regardless of figure. Its simplicity of action is only to be found in underwear bearing the name Rockinchair; made of fine nainsook, $1.25 and $1.50; silk, $4.50.

Wonderful Collection of New White Skirts

Here are snowy new Skirts of satinette, of white tricotine, Baronee satins and the thin, dainty voiles, crepe de chine and georgettes. They are all sorts of new ideas as to pockets and girdles and the arrangement of buttons for trimming. The prices start at $2.95 and go up to $25.00.

Flaked Rit 10c

A new idea and a good one. Flaked Rit will dissolve in the water and save rubbing. And, of course, we have the Cake Rit if you prefer it.

Black Union Suits For Bathing

Women who like to wear a Union Suit under their bathing suit will like these black suits. A cotton suit at $1.50 and a wool mixed suit at $2. —Underwear Section, First Floor

Crocks 1 to 20 Gallons

We have just received a shipment of crocks, all sizes from the one gallon crock at 20c to the 20 gallon crock at $4.75.

Milk crocks 1 gallon 25c, 2 gallon size 35c. Covered butter crocks 35c, 5 pound 35c. Stoneware bean jars, 1-4 gallon size 25c up to the 1 gallon size at 40c.

Crock covers for all sizes from 1 to 20 gallons. —Domestic Section.

Pretty, Dainty, Colored Flaxons For Children's Frocks

And while they are especially suitable for children's frocks because they have white grounds with small checks, stripes and flowered patterns, yet a great many women who prefer neat and dainty designs are buying these for their own frocks. Most all colors are shown in this group. They're 30 inches wide—price 38c yard.

A Wonderful Collection of New Flouncing

In our white goods section we are showing all the new flouncings in pretty fine patterns and you'll find them a little better quality than the usual at the prices they are marked. For example: 27 inch organdy flouncings, $1.50; beautiful Swiss flouncings 27 inches wide, $1.35 and $2.00 a yard; a piece of net flouncing with fine tucks, skirt width at $2.75 yard; another piece of picked net flouncing with fine ruffles at $3.00 yard.

Serpentine Crepes for Kimonos

For a pretty, serviceable kimono, nothing is quite so desirable as Serpentine Crepe, because they launder so well and always look so fresh and cool. Just now we have a wonderful variety of these crepes to choose from. All the plain shades, pretty flowered patterns and charming Japanese designs. They are all 32 inches wide, 35c yard.

C C C Centenary Celebration Columbus

Remember this great Centenary celebration closes its gates on Sunday, July 13th.

Described by William C. Freeman, Associated with Paul Block, Inc., New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston.

In one of my former articles I mentioned briefly the fact that the Centenary celebration, Columbus, exhibited in the Oval Amphitheatre, where fifty thousand people are seated comfortably—THE LARGEST SCREEN IN THE WORLD, taking up a space 133x135 feet—also that a projecting machine—the most powerful in the world—threw picture slides of size 105 feet square on this screen.

You cannot realize what a remarkable thing this is unless you see it—but more remarkable than the screen itself, or the size of the pictures shown, IS THE CHARACTER OF THE PICTURES DISPLAYED.

I saw these pictures shown on Friday night, June 27th, for the first time—and the thousands of people who saw the pictures also, judging from their expressions of approval, electrified them as much as they did me and, furthermore, the contrast of the pictures shown stamped indelibly on our minds the great transformation that takes place when human kindness is employed to elevate unfortunate humanity.

They tell me that some students of the Ohio State University, which is a considerable distance from the State Fair Grounds, Columbus, where the Centenary Celebration is being held—saw very distinctly the other night the pictures shown on this great screen. They marveled at them and enjoyed them just as we who were close by marveled at them and enjoyed them.

Some startling phrases were thrown on the screen. Among them were the following: "There are enough boys and girls under fifteen years of age in the world to make six nations as large as the United States. Six hundred million and not an individual over fifteen years old."

"Dr. Speer calls Chile a 'killing ground for little children.' Seventy-five to eighty per cent of the children die under two years of age and the general rate of mortality is nearly double that of Europe."

"Half the world is illiterate and unable to read or write a word in any language. The church is helping solve this problem by her great program of education."

Startling facts, are they not? Don't you see the great need of the work to be done in foreign lands by the Methodist organization and all other organizations?

As ex-President Taft said in his remarkable speech in the Coliseum, where the Centenary Celebration stages wonderful events besides the GREAT PAGEANT that attracts nightly seventy-five hundred people—"Did God give us the wonderful opportunities we have and the great blessings and prosperity we enjoy here to be selfish, or did He thus endow us so that we might help all of the peoples of the world?"

The pictures shown on the big screen portray in the most effective way, the great advancement made in developing the peoples in foreign lands, mentally, morally and physically.

Surely all red-blooded Americans, enjoying the great privileges of life to a greater degree than the people of any other nation in the world, wish to share their advantages with others. They have demonstrated this desire in their liberal support of the Centenary cause—and all other causes having the same big purpose in view.

During the remainder of the Centenary Celebration the great moving picture companies of America are to occasionally show their productions in the enlarged form demonstrated by the great projecting machine developed by the Centenary management for this special occasion. This will be an annual thing to do—something never before attempted by the Motion Picture people.

I wonder if you know that scientists told the Centenary management that it would be impossible to ever throw a picture on a screen 105 feet square—yet the thing was accomplished after constant practice.

For many months this projecting machine was used in displaying pictures on a large building in Gramercy Park, New York—and scientists laughed, just as scoffers scoffed when the first American missionaries went to foreign lands determined to do what they could to help the people of those countries.

The Centenary Celebration furnishes indisputable evidence of the power of man when directed by a great purpose, to accomplish anything that is worth while.

You must see this wonderful exposition and become enthused about it and absorbed with it as I have been—and then you will have no regret.

recently with my dog. Passing an elevated station I heard what I thought was the backfiring of an auto. Then I saw a man roll down the steps with a satchel. Four other men leapt over his body and drove madly away in an automobile. I looked around for the camera man. But it wasn't a movie stunt. It was a daylight hold-up and the robbers got nearly $100,000. I rode home in a taxicab.

TRY THIS 1900 Cataract Electric Washer IN YOUR HOME

And, with no obligation to buy if you don't want to.

No need to dread wash day. Wash-day isn't the nerve-racking, back-breaking day it used to be. Wash-day afternoon is comfortably spent in social and family pleasures since the 1900 CATARACT ELECTRIC WASHER came into women's lives.

You know what washing used to be—Rubbing, scrubbing, an upset kitchen and an upset family.

Now it's different. Just put the clothes into the smooth 1900 Washer. Press the lever; sit down and read, if you wish. In 8 to 10 minutes the cleansing, soapy, warm water has done the work. Moves just like the figure 8, over, under and through the clothes. Not the least opportunity to harm the daintiest lace. The heaviest blanket is made clean and fluffy.

SAVE LAUNDRY BILLS CLOTHING YOUR STRENGTH

Try it before you buy—a trial costs you nothing. If you decide to buy you can pay for it out of the savings in laundry bills.

Better ask to have one sent up today. Remember, no expense to try.

TO QUIT CAMP ON WEDNESDAY

Camp Price at Mineral Springs, eight miles back of Chester, will be deserted Wednesday morning by the Boy Scouts of Troop 1 of East End, after a successful camp of ten days' duration.

Assistant Scoutmasters Combs and Gilliland assumed charge of the camp Sunday and the end of the outing will witness about eighteen boys in the tents. Joe Jackson, a returned sailor, and former member of the troop, is a guest at the camp for the remaining days.

Guards at the camp prevented the kitchen from being raided by three men shortly after midnight Friday. The camp was visited early Friday evening by a group of men and boys and plans to raid the camp leaked out several hours ahead of the time for which it was planned.

Ernest Gooding, Arzie Wolf and Francis Wilson apprehended the intruders before they had reached the camp kitchen and pursued them over the hills.

Recovering from Injuries.

Samuel Thomas of Pennsylvania avenue, East End, who was severely injured several days ago at Midland, when he was thrown 25 feet to the ground after he had been struck by an electric crane, has almost completely recovered from his injuries, and Sunday was discharged from the East Liverpool City hospital.

Returns from Overseas.

Private Albert Woodward is now at Camp Mills awaiting orders to proceed to a demobilization camp, having reached the United States Saturday, according to a telegram received by his father, J. H. Woodward, of St. George street, East End, Sunday. He is expected home this week. William Woodward, another son, reached home several weeks ago.

Bather Is Rescued.

Although all the swimming holes near East End were popular places Sunday, but one accident was reported for the day. At Beaver Creek, near Fredericktown, a boy was sinking for the third time in a hole nine feet deep when he was rescued. His name was not made known.

Workman Injured.

A flash from electric wires with which Joseph Russell of Holliday street, East End, was working at the Treadwell Construction company's plant at Midland, Pa., severely burned him about both of his eyes and caused his removal to his home, where it was thought Monday his sight was not endangered.

Camp On Babb's Island.

A number of East End boys have established a camp on Babb's Island, opposite East End. At present, the following are in the camp: William Heckathorne, John Harris, Ernest Wolf, John Nickelson, Will Wingett, Don Russell, Charles McKinnon and William Severs.

Will Not Close at 5 P. M.

Business places in East End are not planning to comply with an agreement in downtown stores to close at 5 o'clock each evening during July, August and September. Most of the stores in East End close on Wednesday noons.

Return from Western Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Weizall have returned to their home after concluding a tour of three months' duration through western states. They visited for several weeks in San Francisco, San Diego and Portland.

Opens Photograph Gallery.

John Spahr of Erie street, East End, has established a photograph gallery at Midland, Pa.

Harker Property Sold.

Will Not Visit Newport.
London, June 15.—(By Mail).—Under the heading "Dollar Princesses," the Illustrated Sunday Herald prints the following:

"Those American mothers at Newport, Rhode Island, who are looking forward with eager anticipation to a visit from the bachelor Prince of Wales in the autumn, are likely to be severely disappointed, for there is very high authority to state that the prince has not the slightest intention of visiting Newport."

Mixed Summer Foods The Cause Of Much Indigestion

SUMMER days are days of careless living, kitchens too hot for cooking, cold lunches at the homes of friends, open-air picnics, with the result that many a family is down with indigestion.

Give the stomach and bowels a new start by taking a dose of a good laxative—like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Then put variety into your diet by eating more warm food. It is more easily digested.

A bottle of Syrup Pepsin can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter the family size. It acts so gently and safely that it can be given even to a baby in constipation, indigestion, "summer colds" and similar ills.

The formula on which Syrup Pepsin is based was written by Dr. Caldwell over 30 years ago. It is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that trains the stomach-muscles to do their work naturally so that medicines can again be dispensed with. Over 6 million bottles of Syrup Pepsin are sold by druggists every year. That is recommendation in itself.

If you have never used Syrup Pepsin, send your address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

HOLD WAR RISK INSURANCE, IS MURPHY PLEA

Congressman Makes Appeal To Soldiers, Sailors And Marines.

HERE IS THE STATEMENT
Impresses Upon Men Opportunity to Continue The Insurance.

All returned soldiers, sailors and marines, are urged by Frank Murphy, congressman from the 18th district, to "hold on to their war risk insurance," in a letter made public today as follows:

"To soldiers, sailors and other fighting men of Belmont, Columbiana, Carroll, Harrison and Jefferson counties who participated in the world war:

"As your representative in the congress of the United States, I have been requested by the director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance to call your attention to your insurance and to impress upon you with great earnestness the opportunity which is yours, to continue the insurance which you now have.

"Our government is furnishing to the brave boys who so gallantly gave their time and service for the preservation of American civilization, the cheapest insurance ever offered to those who are thrifty and farsighted, to the end that the loved ones of our patriotic boys may never know the pinch of want.

"No private citizen can obtain this insurance from the government as it is part of the plan of our great government to in a slight way, compensate our splendid defenders.

"The premium paid by you for this insurance is much lower than any private company could possibly sell it, because the losses are not paid from the premiums received, but from the general tax funds of our government.

"So I am delighted to tell you that all the agents of all the great insurance companies of America, have as a patriotic privilege, volunteered to advise and help all you fighting men of this war to adjust your insurance to your peace time needs to the end that if you have carelessly let some or all of your insurance lapse and wish to take advantage of the liberal terms offered by your great government, you can get the information at once from these patriotic agents, or write direct to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, at Washington, D. C.

"This is very important to all who took part in this war and as your congressman, I urge you to take advantage of this opportunity to provide for your future and the happiness of your loved ones."

STUDENTS GO TO CENTENARY

The enlistment of college men and women for Centenary service in the demonstration department connected with the great missionary exhibit will bring to Columbus nearly 500 students representing centers of higher education from Vanderbilt university on the Pacific to Boston university on the Atlantic and from the University of Toronto on the Lakes to Atlanta on the Gulf. The importance of this special division of stewardship volunteers lies in the facts that many of them are preparing for life service in missionary fields and that the qualifications for delegate status are rigid. Many of the students who have qualified are children of missionaries now engaged in foreign work and not a few of them were born in other lands. These will be assigned to give instructional talks and assist in the religious dramas illustrating missionary accomplishments and needs in the countries most familiar to them.

The exacting task of recruiting this student group of conversational stewards and of weeding out the lists of applicants to the end that only those meeting requirements for possible future work in home or foreign mission fields should be given the advantages of this centenary service with its attendant special training has been in the hands of three men prominent in church interests, Rev. William K. Anderson, pastor at Ohio State university, director of student enlistment for the Methodist Church North, Rev. Richard D. Smart, long identified as instructor in Soochow university, with collegiate work in China, director of student enlistment south, co-operating with Percy J. Burrell, general director of enlistment. The technical course of training taken by the candidates for service is mapped out by Mr. Jay S. Stowell, director of the educational department of the centenary.

This quartet of men at the head of the student selective service movement are all college men themselves—Mr. Burrell from the University of Boston, Mr. Stowell first at Oberlin, then Columbia, later Union Theological seminary, of which Rev. William K. Anderson, from Vanderbilt university, holds degrees in both art and theology.

The stewards in the student group, some 60 per cent of whom are women, will receive sufficient compensation to meet expenses, in return for which they give six hours daily service in the exhibit buildings. From India come the two sons of Bishop Theobald, studying in Allegheny college, Meadville, Pa.; from Boston university a delegation of fourteen who have been studying under Prof. Planied, of the board of missions; from Evanston, Ill., Miss Minian Robinson, daughter of Bishop Robinson, of India; from Oberlin a group of nine young women who have been given special training by Mrs. E. H. Richards, wife of the well known Methodist missionary; from Baker university a contingent of men to take part in the rural demonstrations; and numbers of others assigned by request because of individual fitness for definite lines of service.

APPOINTED Y. M. SECRETARY.

Delaware, July 7.—W. C. Lansfield, who is attending a training school at Geneva, Wis., has been chosen by the board of directors as the new secretary of the Delaware Y. M. C. A. He will assume his duties in the near future, Mansfield came to Delaware from Steubenville, where he was a Usalesman prior to enlisting in Y. M. work during the war.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and awful pains—and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

—Mrs. LIZZIE COURTNEY, 108 8th Ave., West, Oskaloosa, Iowa.
Why will women drag along from day to day, year in and year out, suffering such misery as did Mrs. Courtney, when such letters as this are continually being published. Every woman who suffers from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, nervousness, or who is passing through the Change of Life should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its long experience is at your service.

MAZOLA

The Perfect Oil for Cooking and Salads

THE general use of Mazola is remarkable:

Your can of Mazola gives you a fat for shortening, cake-making, deep fat frying, sauteing. And for salad dressings, either mayonnaise, cooked mayonnaise, or French dressing Mazola is matchless.

And remember—Mazola is equal to Butter for cooking—Better than Olive Oil for salads, at half the price of either. Better, more Wholesome and Economical than lard or compounds.

Marriage Announced.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mildred Hurst Wyllie of Clarksburg and W. Joseph Kennedy, son of Mrs. Mary Kennedy of Chestnut street, this city, an event of Thursday, July 3. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. H. McDer-mott, pastor of the Immaculate Conception church of Clarksburg, in the rectory of the church. They were attended by Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, sister of the bridegroom, and C. J. McCue of Clarksburg. Only immediate members of the families were in attendance. They left immediately for an extended honeymoon trip to Atlantic City, Washington, D. C. and New York city. They will reside in Clarksburg, where the bridegroom is employed as foreman of the clay shops in the D. E. McNicol pottery. Mr. Kennedy resided in this city prior to accepting the position in Clarksburg four years ago.

Licensed to Wed.

A marriage license has been granted to Otto Schmidbauer and Miss Irene Marshall, both of this city.

Sayre-Moore Wedding.

Paul C. Moore and Miss Georgia Sayre, both well known young people of this city, were married in Lisbon Thursday at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. P. W. MacCauley, pastor of the church, officiated.

Harp-Shaw Wedding.

On Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock Miss Henriette Harp became the bride of Fred Shaw of this city. The service was read by Rev. Lionel C. Difford, in the study of St. Stephen's Episcopal church in the presence of Mrs. Florence Rowley, sister of the bridegroom, and Lawrence Harp, brother of the bride.

The bride was prettily attired in a gown of pink and white georgette crepe and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Mrs. Rowley wore white georgette and carried red roses. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rowley, 1013 Bradshaw avenue. Pink and white was the color scheme of the decorations.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Shaw was employed at the Wilson Millinery store in West Fifth street. The bridegroom holds a position with the E. M. Knowles China company in Chester. After a honeymoon trip to lake points, the young people will be at home to their friends in Chester.

In Honor of Nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mulligan entertained Friday evening at their home in Riverside park, honoring their nephew, William Lawrence Riedel, who celebrated his eighth birthday anniversary at this time. Miss Florence McLane was in charge of the entertainment of the evening which included games and music. The lawn

LIKES FARM WORK MUCH BETTER THAN LECTURE PLATFORM

Mrs. John McRaven.

Mrs. John McRaven of Alexander, Ark., went back to the simple life when the war started and now she claims that it is the only thing and she does not care to return to the lecture platform, where she had been very successful until the war created a greater demand for food than for Lyceum members. She cultivated the land herself with the help of her two young sons and her daughter. "I found that despite the long hours and hard work we all felt better and we had more time for study and reading together than we had in the city," is Mrs. McRaven's claim.

What Will Become of the Filipinos?

Peculiar Problems That Would Be Involved in the Giving of Independence to Uncle Sam's Wards in the Asiatic Islands, Where Inter-Tribal War Was at One Time a Habit.

Gongs with Human Jaws for Handles.

By Rene Bache

IF freedom is given to the Philippines, according to the plan now contemplated, Uncle Sam will continue to maintain there a great naval station for the protection of his commercial interests in the western Pacific.

Incidental to the transaction he will hand over to the Tagalog Filipinos, his wards, the non-Christian tribes of the archipelago. These, of course, include the Moros of the southern islands, who are semi-savage Malays. Also the Igorots of northern Luzon, who are aborigines of a different race.

The Igorots, who number about 400,000, dwell in the so-called mountain province of Luzon, a rugged and densely forested region. Before the Americans arrived, they were about as wild as any people could be, eating meat raw, drinking warm blood and indulging an appetite for wholesale homicide. Head-hunting was their principal field sport and with at least one tribe, the Apayao, it was a religious rite.

A Chronic State of War

Every village was at perpetual war with its neighbors. A stranger was necessarily an enemy. No young man was considered entitled to a wife until he had taken at least one head. Nobody's life was safe half a dozen miles from his own domicile. The head of a woman or child was as glorious a trophy as that of a man. Workers in the rice paddies and sweet-potato fields were usually protected by armed guards, while sentinels in watch-towers on nearby peaks kept a lookout for the possible approach of foes.

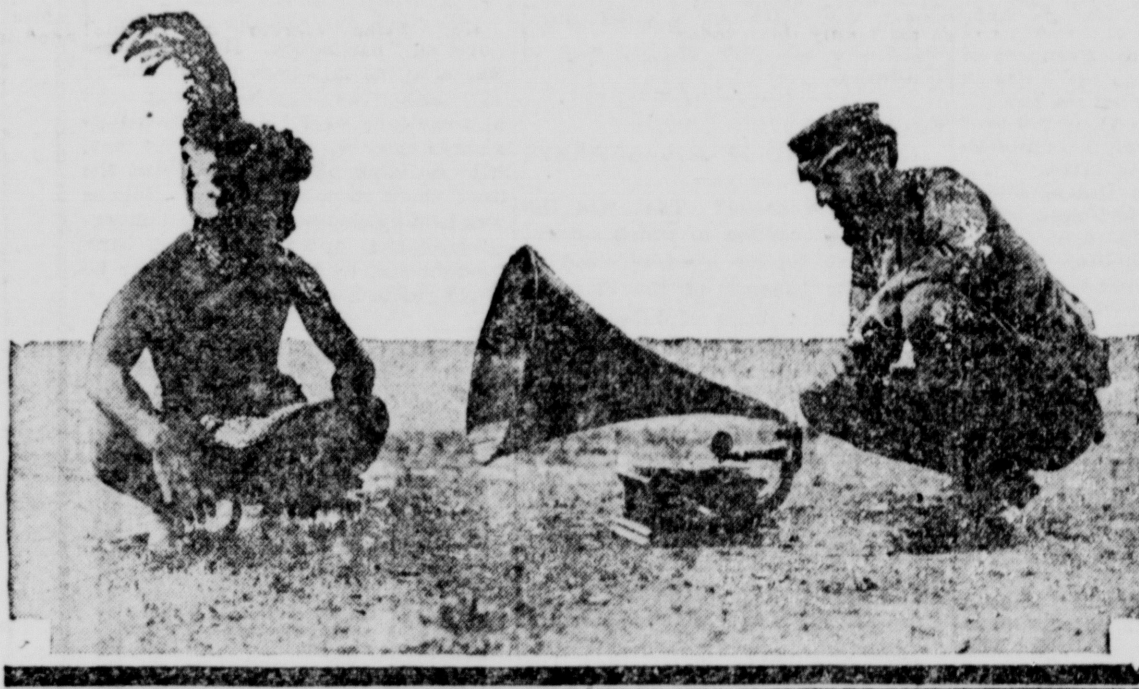

The civilizing of these wild people was one of the most interesting experiments of its kind in history. It was undertaken under extraordinary difficulties, for these natives had been ruthlessly treated by the Spaniards, who enslaved them whenever opportunity offered, and the Tagalogs were hardly more merciful. Physically the Igorots are far superior to the Tagalogs, the civilized Filipinos of Spanish descent, and of fully equal intelligence, but, with no better weapons than spears and head-axes, they were defenceless. Thus it is not surprising that at first they should have looked upon the Americans with bitter hostility. It was to them a huge surprise to find that the newcomers wished to be kind, to pay them for their labor, to instruct them in the arts of civilization and to help them in every way possible. When once they had grasped this fact, they evinced a touching gratitude.

The first important discovery made by the Americans was that the chief reason for the endless feuds among these people was—strange though it may seem—lack of roads! In the absence of roads they had no chance to get acquainted, village with village, and so each community was always at odds with other communities. Accordingly, the Americans set about the business of making trails over the mountains and through the forests, widening many of these latter into wagon roads. As fast as the trails got anywhere the feuds in that neighborhood died out with amazing suddenness. What use to go after another fellow's head when you have become acquainted with him and found him a decent chap, after all?

Among the most inveterate head-hunters were the Ifugaos, a tribe numbering 125,000. They were ferociously hostile at first. But before long, having come to realize the value of the roads, they actually asked to be subjected to a labor tax requiring each able-bodied man to give 10 days' work to road building every year. Later, several companies of Ifugaos were organized as constabulary, to keep the native tribes in order. They have done admirable work, making first-class soldiers and wonderful marksmen with the rifle.

Railroad Built by Igorots

Baguio, 175 miles due north of Manila, is today the terminus of one of the most wonderful roads in the world, built by Igorots under the direction of American engineers. Extending all the way from Baguio to the sea, it is carved to a large extent from solid rock, skirting the sides of steep mountains and crossing deep canyons in many places with suspension bridges.

At the town of Bontoc, where a few years ago no white man could have ventured without an armed escort, there is a brick clubhouse and an up-to-date hospital. In the hospital, say the Igorots, are miracle workers in white clothes who know how to kill people and bring them to life again—referring, of course, to treatment with anaesthetics.

There was one patient who suffered from "yaws," a distressing tropical disease. The doctors gave him medicine and he was much disgusted because they refused to treat his sores. Soon, however, he found himself cured and thereupon disappeared, returning a few days later with 20 or more sufferers from the same malady whom he had collected from 50 miles around.

At Bontoc, which is the capital of a sub-province of the same name, a canal has been built by native labor to furnish that community with a plentiful supply of pure mountain water. All the inhabitants of the near-by village of Minac have become independently rich by burning lime and selling it to the provincial government.

Civilizing Luzon

All over the mountain province of Luzon telegraph and telephone lines have been stretched, reaching the most remote and inaccessible districts. The potato and other desirable vegetables have been placed in the hands of the Igorot agriculturist. Likewise, ploughs and other modern tools of husbandry. The Igorots are excellent farmers and along some valleys their terraced rice fields climb the mountain sides all the way from the river beds to elevations of 1000 feet or more.

The Americans have taught the Igorots how to go shopping. At suitably central points great stores have been established by Uncle Sam, called "exchanges," which are supplied with every kind of merchandise likely to be required by the natives, the prices asked being those current at Manila, plus 20 per cent. and cost of transportation.

At these stores the Igorots not only can buy what they want; they can also sell. They bring food products, baskets, wood carvings, native weapons and all sorts of things that have a market value as curios in Manila or elsewhere. Payment is made liberally in cash.

All over the mountain province the government has established schools—the buildings, in many cases of brick or stone, constructed by the natives. Each school has its baseball team. The Igorots have taken wholeheartedly to baseball and at games between teams representing rival towns the crowds are sometimes larger and even more enthusiastic than at similar events in the United States.

In the schools a feature is made of industrial training. The boys are taught enough tailoring to enable them to make coats and other garments for themselves. The girls learn how to put skirts and waists together. It is a kind of work much enjoyed by the children because the garments they have made are given to them to wear.

Soap, combs, hair-brushes and hair-clippers are regularly in demand as items of school supply. The boys cut each other's hair. The girls, big and little, come to school every morning with faces shining, hair neatly brushed and wearing the dresses which they themselves have fashioned.

The boys are taught wood working, furniture making and iron working. They learn how to construct looms and the girls how to use them for making cloth. Each girl, when her instruction ends, takes her loom, returns to her village and extends her knowledge of weaving to her family and friends.

The Igorots and Liberty Day

The Fourth of July is to the Igorots the greatest day in the year. The Americans have taught them that it is liberty day and it means a lot to them for that reason, for they never knew what liberty was until Uncle Sam came and gave it to them.

On that day great festivals, organized by American civil officials and army officers, are held. The main object of these celebrations, from the American point of view, is to bring the tribes together, give them a good time and make them acquainted with one another. There are baseball games and other American sports which the Igorots have adopted, such as the "tug-of-war" and climbing the greased pole. At the top of the pole—a lofty stalk of bamboo—is hung a bag of coins, the prize of him who can reach it. Frantic are the efforts and tumultuous the roars of laughter that attend each failure.

There are also native sports. "War parties" of boys attack each other with reed spears, harmless, of course. In spear-throwing contests wonderful skill is exhibited. Then there are dancing contests between the best dancers of rival towns. Highly dramatic is the "head dance," in which the performer, armed with head-axe, lance and shield, shows in pantomime how he fought his enemy, killed him and took his head.

Native Yells

Loud and enthusiastic are the yells of encouragement and approval uttered by the spectators. The Ifugaos have a cry that is remarkably like some American college yell. It is, "Wah-wah, wah-wah, wah-wah—y—i-i-i!"

Meanwhile the warlike Moros of Mindanao, Palawan and the Sulus, whose activities were formerly devoted largely to robbery and piracy, have become very friendly to the Americans—as a result, to no small extent, of measures of extreme severity that had, heretofore, to be adopted in disciplining them. They are now orderly enough, barring an occasional small outbreak.

What is going to happen to the non-Christian tribes of the archipelago after the Tagalog Filipinos are left in charge and control of them remains to be seen. Some say that they may soon revert to savagery. It is to be hoped that such a thing will not happen. Were this to come about, one of the most interesting ethnologic and philanthropic experiments the world has ever known—an experiment which the American government has spent 20 years in making successful—would terminate in a dismal and regrettable failure.

Light and the Eyes

NOTHING is more deceptive than the appearance of a cat's eye. The pupil ordinarily appears as a long, narrow oval or a vertical black line, yet its natural shape is circular. It is a matter of the effect of light. In a bright light our pupils become very small circles, while those of a cat turn into ovals or narrow slits. The general effect is the same in either case—namely, to diminish the quantity of light passing into the eye. Curiously enough, in the larger animals of the cat tribe, such as tigers, the pupil sometimes behaves exactly like a human pupil, and when brightly illuminated contracts into a minute circle instead of becoming linear. In the case of domestic cats, the older the animal the more frequently does the pupil of the eye assume a circular form.

Babe Adams, Star Bezedekian Hurier, is Original Come-Backer.

HURLING AT .750 CLIP

Has Seen Lots of Minor League Service Since He Left The Big Show.

New York, July 7.—Lid's off to Babe Adams.

You've simply got to hand it to the hero of the 1900 world's series between the Pirates and Detroit, who was relegated to the down and out club three years ago and who has staged a comeback that has some of the wisest baseball birds whistling for breath.

The ancient Babe ranks high among the winning pitchers of the National league this year. At the present writing he is pitching at a .750 clip and has won nine games of ball for Hugo Bezdek's pennant hunters. And they said he was through.

On the last day of June the ancient warrior stacked up against the Cardinals at Forbes Field and won his game with ease, celebrating the tenth anniversary of the opening of the famous ball park, an opening in which he participated as a member of the Pittsburgh club. That's going some. No other major league pitcher has ever had that pleasure. If Adams feels a bit chummy about it he is entitled to feel that way.

When Barney Dreyfus, the president of the Pirates, parted company with Adams by giving him his unconditional release, he did so with regrets, for the Babe is by far the hardest working and altogether the most picturesque slapper Pittsburgh has had in years and years.

Adams was always immensely popular in Pittsburgh. With the veteran George "Mooney" Gibson as his backstop he pitched the hearts out of opposing clubs during the heydays of his career, and it was with regret that Smoky City fans saw him pass along.

But what did the Babe do? He faded into shadows just outside the glare of the major league spotlight and wound up in the Western league, where, as a member of Jack Holland's St. Joseph-Hutchinson aggregation, he earned his three squares with surprising ease. His pitching was so effective that John Gangel, manager of the Kansas City Blues, brought him up another notch into the American Association, and the veteran helped the Blues win a pennant.

Now he's back in the big show and going as good, even better, than he did five or six years ago.

Off the skypiece to Babe Adams, for he is made of the stuff that made "Iron Man" McGinnity famous.

CHINA AIDED WAR WORK HERE

Chinese men, women and children contributed $1,200,000 in gold in the course of the United War Work campaign in the United States last November. It is shown in a private letter received yesterday by a member of war camp community service. The contributions showed the keenness of the Chinese to back up the allies in their war against the central powers, because it was exactly $1,000,000 over the sum the citizens of the Celestial republic were asked to raise.

When plans for the United States War Work campaign had been made, Myron T. Herrick, chairman of the national Finance committee of War Camp community service at the time and formerly ambassador to France, suggested appeal for financial aid to the people of China. At his request, the American minister to China urged the authorities of that nation to give their people the chance to line themselves up in support of the war work campaign. It was waged in behalf of seven organizations which had been entrusted with the task of attending to the welfare of allied soldiers and sailors overseas and in the United States.

Response of the Chinese officials was immediate and appeal was made to the population for $100,000. The people showed instant enthusiasm and the campaign extended throughout the republic. Processions were held and meetings assembled. One procession of Chinese students extended over a distance of three or four miles. The paraders carried gaily decorated banners, lanterns and transparencies and marched to music furnished by many bands.

School children showed particular interest in the campaign. The schools as units were enlisted in the campaign but most of the children indicated a preference to contribute as individuals. In Peking, offerings were received from but one school as a unit. In all, 15,000 receipts were given for offerings in Peking. In that city, 90,000 copper coins were offered. Banks were swamped.

When the excitement was over, it was found that the total of $1,200,000 in offerings had been reached. The Chinese had gone "over the top" and had registered their faith in the cause of democracy.

Tobacco Habit Dangerous

says Doctor Connor, formerly of Johns Hopkins hospital. Thousands of men suffering from fatal diseases would be in perfect health today were it not for the deadly drug Nicotine. Stop the habit now before it's too late. It's a simple process to rid yourself of the tobacco habit in any form. Just go to any up-to-date drug store and get some Nicotol tablets; take them as directed and lo! the pernicious habit quickly vanishes. Druggists refund the money if they fail. Be sure to read large and interesting announcement by Doctor Connor soon to appear in this paper. It tells of the danger of nicotine poisoning and how to avoid it. In the meantime try Nicotol tablets; you will be surprised at the result. For sale by Charles T. Larkins.

JUST A QUIET SMOKE, BUT IT SHOCKED SOME

Topeka, Kan.—Clouds of smoke coming from the women's waiting room at the Rock Island depot here, caused the patrons of the room to make an investigation. When the matron told her it was not the place to smoke, the aged woman went outside the depot and completed her smoke. She said she came from the mountains and was on her way to Nebraska.

PRETTY BOSTON CO-EDS ADMIT OF ENGAGEMENTS

Boston.—Engaged? That was the interesting question to which several affirmative replies were received at the senior banquet of the class of 1919 of the College of Liberal Arts at Boston university. "This is the best looking lot of girls that I have ever stood up in front of," said Professor Sharp to the feminine majority of the seniors. Mike Menoskey's homer with Rice on base ahead of him put the Senators on easy street in their Sunday game with the Yanks.

Seven hits made by Earl Smith, Williams and Severoid of the Browns, took the wind out of the Indians.

The Cincinnati Reds climbed into first place right over the shoulders of the Giants when they defeat Pittsburgh.

Salas and Reuther pitched invincible ball for the Reds, the latter winning his eight straight game.

May's wildness gave the Cubs a victory at Chicago. The Card pitcher forced in the tying run and wild pitched the winning run home for Mitchell's men.

TWO BIG PILOTS TO DROP TIME READY REINS

Connie Mack and John McGraw May Retire at End of The Season, Rumor.

HARRY DAVIS, ASSISTANT

Christy Mathewson Touted To Succeed Veteran Giant Manager.

New York, July 7.—Two veteran major league managers are standing on the threshold of retirement at the close of the present season.

One is Connie Mack who for years has guided the destinies of the Athletics. The other is John McGraw, Mack's time-honored rival.

After many thrifty, careful years as manager and part owner of the Athletics, Connie Mack has amassed enough of this world's lucre to fade into the background and take things easy, retaining his share in the Philadelphia club and turning over the active management to another.

The signing of Harry Davis as assistant manager is the forecasting shadow of Mack's retirement. Davis, a veteran of the Mackian school, holds Connie's confidence, and we have it from those who claim to be "low down" on the "know" that Mack is going to toss the old managerial satchel aside.

John McGraw, now vice-president and part owner of the Giants, will become the guiding business head of the club, turning over the management to somebody else—probably Christy Mathewson. McGraw, during his long years of service as field general of the Gotham Nationals, has taken an active part in all pertinent affairs of the club, and if he wins the

URNS SIX SOMERSAULTS AS LIGHTNING HITS HIM

Steubenville, Ohio.—When lightning struck a house near here William Kirkpatrick, seventeen, was hurled clear across the dining room and says he turned at least six somersaults while in the air.

National League pennant this year he will be satisfied to stand on his record as a manager and disappear from the coaching lines.

The wisdom of selecting Matty to fill the managerial shoes of McGraw is considered doubtful by many close followers of the Giants. Matty is highly popular. He is a product of the McGraw school and he knows the game. But so far Matty has not proved a success as a manager.

Piloting the Cincinnati Reds was somewhat of an acid test for the "Old Marster." He succeeded in putting new life into the club, it is true, but like his many predecessors, he failed to get any place. Still, the Reds and the Giants are different clubs, and they are run along vastly different lines. So, after all, it is unfair to Matty to say what he might or might not accomplish should he become the manager of the Giants.

Regardless of who their successors may be, Mack and McGraw are ready to go, and unless their present intentions undergo a decided change two of the most picturesque field generals the major leagues have ever seen will pass from the managerial limelight with the coming of another winter.

MITCHELL OUT AS PRESIDENT

By LUTHER A. HUSTON.

Chicago, July 7.—Somebody else is going to do the worrying about business affairs of the Chicago Cubs, and Fred Mitchell is going to give all his attention to prodding the Cubs along in their fight to pass the Reds and the Giants and repeat their 1918 stunt of winning a National league pennant.

Mitchell is leading the Cubs on their second eastern invasion today with the burden of being president moved from his shoulders. He has resigned as president of the Cubs and will be known hereafter as Manager Mitchell only. William Vecek, vice president, has been elevated to the presidency and William M. Walker has been elected vice president.

Mitchell's decision to retire as president came after events of the first half of the 1919 season convinced him that the playing activities of the Cubs needed all his attention. It presages a concerted and determined drive by the Chicago outfit to overtake the fast stepping Reds and Giants.

By riding rough-shod over the Pirates yesterday and taking both ends of a double-header, the Reds leaped in front of the Giants and lead the league today with a one point advantage in the percentage column. The Giants however, will have a chance to regain first place by defeating the Phillies today while the Reds are idle through an open date in the schedule.

The Cubs are trailing in third place, more than 100 points back of both Cincinnati and New York but lately have been showing signs of regaining their puch. The Cubs' pitchers also have been working in better form of late. Mitchell believes that, with the business affairs of the club in the hands of some one else, he can drive the team at the speed that made them champions in 1918. The motto of Mitchell and the Cubs today is: "Look out, you Reds and Giants. We're on your trail."

PECORD'S RULING

Toledo, July 7.—Ollie Pecord has come forward with a belated decision on the Willard-Dempsey fight. It was a three-round knockout. At the request of Tex Rickard who was deluged with telegrams from bettors all over the country, Pecord ruled that the fight ended at the close of the third round and that Dempsey be officially credited with a knockout in that round.

TOMMY MILTON IN BIG RACES

Uniontown, Pa., July 7.—Tommy Milton and Dave Lewis, driving the new Deussenberg eight cylinder racing creation, declared to be the fastest racing car ever developed, are expected at the mid-summer championship events at the Uniontown Speedway on July 19. While their entries have not been received, reports from New York where they are entered in the July 4 races at Sheephead Bay are to the effect that they are looking forward to the two big July events to carry off honors in the racing game. Milton won the season's inaugural and the Universal trophy cup in what many railbirds declare to have been the finest racing exhibition ever seen at Uniontown.

Dave Lewis is another popular favorite at Uniontown, although he drove but one race here, the first and memorable one in which Frank Galvin, Hughie Hughes and Galvin's mechanic were killed. Lewis was Galvin's team mate, driving the Premier cars owned by the Indianapolis Speedway.

Lewis' return to the automobile racing game was heralded with intense interest here and his failure to come to Uniontown for the season's inaugural caused sincere regret. The Deussenberg car which Lewis was to have driven was not ready in time for the Uniontown opener and Milton was selected to drive in the big race. With Milton and Lewis each at the wheels of Deussenberg cars, these will prove extremely dangerous to the other drivers in the big race and will bring out the greatest speed ever witnessed on the Uniontown track, especially in a short event.

Milton broke the world's record at Sheephead Bay for ten laps, averaging a fraction better than 116 miles an hour.

FOSDICK LAUDS W.C.C.S. WORK

Approval of the work done for American soldiers and sailors in the United States by War Camp community service is expressed by Raymond B. Fosdick, retiring chairman of the war department commission on training camp activities, in a letter to H. S. Braucher, secretary of War Camp community service, made public yesterday. Mr. Fosdick, who has sailed for France to attend a meeting of the League of Nations, also expresses satisfaction at the formation of Community service (Incorporated) which, as an outgrowth of the war camp organization, will carry on community service throughout the country.

The letter from Mr. Fosdick follows: "I have learned with great satisfaction of the formation of the Community service (Incorporated) growing out of the War Camp community service. This, as I understand it, is an extension into peace time problems of the work which was so creditably done by your organization during the war. The days ahead are going to bring many perplexing problems in the shape of reconstruction and readaptation, and nothing is going to aid more effectively in meeting these difficulties than a cohesive community spirit such as can come only from linking together in a common program all the forward-looking agencies of the locality, particularly those that have to do with leisure time. I have seen during the war the effect of your work upon scores of communities in the United States, and I can testify to the fact that under your guidance and with the incentive which you have helped to create, many of our towns and cities have been born again in a consciousness of common interest.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others. It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses. Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardice, are due in a large measure to abused nerves. People with plenty of red blood corpuscles and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support. There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in American today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost. To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery, to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but as man now go, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-feren every day for seven days—and take them faithfully. Two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted. Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen-minded, the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them. Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, run-down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. Carnahan's Pharmacy F. W. Herche and all other druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

FIGHT FILMS IN CLEVELAND

Cleveland, July 7.—Despite the fact that the only member of the Ohio state board of censors who viewed them declared "such human butchery should not be shown in the state the official pictures of the Willard-Dempsey fight went on here and drew large crowds yesterday and today. Two other members of the board of censors will pass on the pictures today at Columbus.

It was learned today that the owners of the pictures anticipate little trouble in showing them all over the United States inasmuch as the official permit for the Willard-Dempsey fight called it a "boxing contest." There is no federal ban on pictures of "boxing contests."

Exhibition of the pictures developed that Dempsey knocked Willard down seven times in the first round.

THEDA BARA IN "SIREN'S SONG," AT AMERICAN

The barrier of wealth and social position crumbles to dust when true love brings Marie Bernais and her lover together in "The Siren's Song." This newest William Fox super-production featuring Theda Bara, is showing for the first time at the American theater today.

Rarely has Miss Bara appeared in a more pleasing and dramatic role than that of Marie Bernais, the Breton fishermaid. Her portrayal of the simple village girl, who is spurned by her lover because of her humble estate, is exquisite. Later in the play, when the little maid of Brittany has become the greatest prima donna of Paris, she loves a wealthy man who gives her real love in return. She tastes true happiness until her girlhood sweetheart returns and persuades her, by spiritual argument, to give up her lover. By practicing her wiles upon him, the singer discovers that his motives in urging her to the sacrifice were motives not of goodness, but of selfish passion.

Her wonderful voice breaks from her suffering. She becomes again the humble fishermaid and lives in obscurity. But true affection is not frightened away at her humbleness. Her Paris lover returns after many years, and Marie finds happiness in the end.

In this drama of human emotion Miss Bara's talent is revealed at its best. "The Siren's Song" is sure to delight everyone who sees it.

BUCKEYE STATE BRIEFS

Galion—Rev. Wallace W. Wood has resigned as pastor of the First Baptist church in this city and has accepted a call to the Coan Baptist church at Heathsville, Va.

Dayton—In a speech here, Dr. Frederick H. Newell, head of the American Association of Engineers, declared that the next secretary of the interior should be an engineer. He declared that in filling public offices, the engineering profession was overlooked and lawyers and others named, when, he said, in practically all public improvement matters, the engineer has even more practical and working knowledge.

Canton—The Timken Roller Bearing company of Canton and Detroit has decided to erect a new factory in Columbus, and work will be commenced soon. Machinery has been ordered.

and part of it is ready for shipment. The Canton plant has been doubled within a year.

Massillon—The proposal to take in to the corporation the industrial plants and adjoining territory has been made in council, and a sharp contest over the matter is in prospect. Four members of council are reported in favor of the action and three are opposed.

Alliance—The Fairmount Children's home, south of this city, has been placed under quarantine by the state board of health. Two deaths from diphtheria and eleven cases have been reported by the authorities, and measures have been taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

YOUR CATARRH MAY LEAD TO CONSUMPTION

Dangerous to Use Treatment for Only Temporary Relief.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and other distasteful features.

The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications.

S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source, and removes the germs of the disease from the blood. MURAD

THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

"A ROSE by any other name would smell as sweet"—but cigarettes of any other tobacco than Turkish don't smoke as enjoyably.

The reason Murads are demanded by thousands of smokers is that they are made of 100% pure Turkish tobacco—the world's most famous tobacco for cigarettes—and so conceded.

That is why many manufacturers boast of even a dash of Turkish tobacco in their brands.

It is true that "ordinary" cigarettes cost a trifle less.

WAS ADVISED TO USE NERV-WORTH BY TWO DOCTORS

Mr. Johnson says that when advising himself and wife to take Nerv-Worth the doctors spoke of it as "fine medicine." Here is the story as given to the Columbus Nerv-Worth drug-gist not long ago:

The Mykranitz Co.—My wife and I have used Nerv-Worth with wonderful beneficial results. She had been troubled for years with severe nervousness. Pains in the back of the neck. Stomach and digestion in bad shape. Restless at night and very much rundown.

I had serious nervous trouble. Tossed about the bed all night long and worn out by morning and it was pulling me down in strength and something had to be done to get relief as it was affecting my eyesight. We both found it in Nerv-Worth, which put us in good shape and did it quick. It is a wonderful medicine and tonic and rid us of all our nervous troubles. We both eat and sleep well and enjoy good health. We recommend Nerv-Worth to all. It was recommended to us by two doctors.

BECKETT SEEKS MATCH

London, July 7.—Joe Beckett, new English heavyweight champion, is ready to meet Jack Dempsey "anywhere, any time," after his match with Georges Carpentier, French champion, in September, his manager, Bernard Mortimer, declared today.

"I am glad Dempsey won," said Mortimer. "Willard did the game no good by retiring as soon as he had whipped Johnson. I only hope Dempsey will prove a worthy champion and give Beckett a chance to meet him."

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AT THE CERAMIC

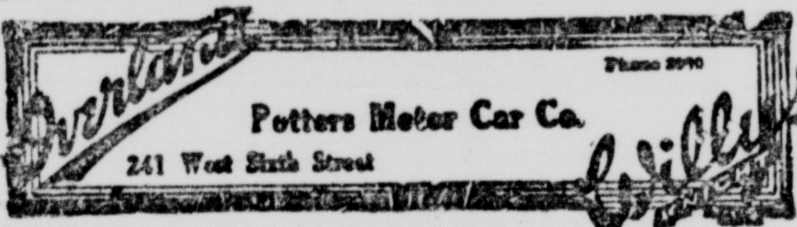

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo"

No doubt Douglas Fairbanks' host Douglas is required to do some of the most strenuous stunts of his career in this city in a new picture in the course of the difficulties of a con's life. This absence was led into in the role of the young occasioned by the fact that it actually Knickerbocker Buckaroo. He did require a period of six months to some close training with Bull Mon-make the latest and most pretentious, Spike Robinson and Kid McCoy of all Fairbanks pictures, "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo" which opens apicture, and was in the pink of condition for the engagement at the Ceramediton when the time came to do his stunts. Fatness Kills
31,000 Yearly

Fat is fatal to health and personality. It is estimated that over 31,000 persons have died each year in the past decade long before their allotted span of life, through the effects of excessive fatness. Any overweight man or woman is carrying unhealthy adiposity that is pressing against and injuring vital organs of the body. The heart, that delicate human apparatus, becomes congested. In numerous cases there are dangerous gatherings of packed in fat around the throat, stomach, liver and other delicate parts.

Through overeating the afflicted person while apparently well is liable to nervousness, neurasthenia, physical or mental collapse and other disorders, for obesity is irritating. Cases of heart failure, apoplexy, sunstroke, etc., are frequent causes of premature death. Fat persons are particularly victims of accidents and are more liable than healthy, slender persons to death from influenza, pneumonia and other severe ailments.

If you are overweight you should know it is truly a case of slow suicide for you to kill yourself a good many years before natural old age, simply because you do not emancipate yourself from the burden of unhealthy, unsightly fat. Moreover, your efficiency should be improved by becoming slender. So your appearance should become younger and more attractive. There is a delightfully successful method of weight reduction known as Korin system. It consists of some simple directions with the use of oil of Korin. This method is so pleasant because it contains no thyroid or other such drastic ingredients, no strenuous exercises, no starvation. Indeed, you may eat all you need. The Korin system is guaranteed: it is perfectly harmless, recommended by physicians. A reliable self-treatment.

By reducing now you may expect greater contentment, happiness, increased mental and physical efficiency, better health and a longer life. Be fair to yourself and those who are dear to you! Surprise everybody with your renewed vigor, vivacity and surpassingly superior personality. Get oil of Korin (the easy Korin system is in each pkg.) at the drug store without delay; or if more convenient, send $1.00 cash, stamps or money order to Korin Oil Co., 231-69, Station F, New York, N. Y.

PAULINE FREDERICK AT STRAND TODAY

Appearing in one of the last roles of her screen career, Pauline Frederick, the beautiful Paramount star, will be seen in her new photoplay, "Paid in Full," at the Strand theater today. This is a superb picturization of Eugene Walter's famous play of the same name that was produced in New York in 1907 and subsequently presented abroad with enormous success for several years.

The story of the picture which was adapted by Charles E. Whitaker and directed by Emile Chautard, is a powerful one and deals with the trials of a young woman who is the wife of a shiftless and imprudent clerk. He steals a large sum of money from his employer, a Chandler known as Captain Williams, and to avoid prosecution he sends his wife to his employer as his intermediary.

The old captain seeks to ensnare the wife in his toils, but when a breezy Westerner, who secretly loves the woman, threatens to kill him if he takes advantage of her helplessness, he gives up the game and sends her away with a letter exonerating her husband. She then quits her husband, leaving her free to wed the man who had befriended and loved her for years.

WORSE THAN DEADLY POISON GAS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. It attacks young and old alike.

In most cases the victim is warned of the approaching danger. Nature fights back. Headache, indigestion, insomnia, lame back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, pain in the joints and lower abdomen, difficulty in urinating, all are indication of trouble brewing in your kidneys.

When such symptoms appear you will almost certainly find quick relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules.

This famous old remedy has stood the test for two hundred years in helping mankind to fight off disease. It is imported direct from the home laboratories in Holland, where it has helped to develop the Dutch into one of the sturdiest and healthiest races in the world, and it may be had at almost every drug store. Your money promptly refunded if it does not relieve you. Be sure to get the genuine GOLD MEDAL Brand. In sealed packages, three sizes.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING HERE

Members of the Grant district board of education met Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the high school building for the purpose of discussing plans for the coming term of school.

Several matters of importance were up for discussion, including the naming of teachers for the district schools for the 1919-20 term and the general reorganization of the teaching staff.

At the present time, stated Superintendent of Schools A. D. Osborne, there are four vacancies in the district teaching corps. The schools at Congo, Sheppard's Valley, the Allison district and the Brooklyn district must be supplied with instructors. It is thought that the position at Congo will be filled soon as there has already been one application filed. There have been no other applications received so far for the other schools.

MANY WILL ATTEND TABERNACLE SERVICES

Many Newell people are planning to attend the series of tabernacle meetings to be conducted at New Cumberland, beginning Wednesday and continuing until July 27.

Rev. George J. Kutz of Syracuse, N. Y., and evangelist of some note, will have charge of the meetings the first week. Rev. Arthur C. Zepp of pland, Ind., who is well known in this vicinity where he has appeared before, will take charge following Rev. Kuntz. Rev. Zepp is the author of several books.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson of Akron, O., will lead the singing exercises. A special program of speaking and music will be rendered every day of the meetings.

TO REIMBURSE FARMER FOR LOSS OF SHEEP

The county dog tax will be used to reimburse Cliff Walker, Hancock county farmer, residing not far from Weirton, who suffered the loss of over a dozen sheep, killed by dogs, several days ago. It is the first case of the kind that has been brought to the attention of the authorities in the county for several years.

The sheep were grazing in a meadow near the farmhouse where Walker lived. The attack of the dogs resulted in the death of five of the sheep, while eight others were badly injured before the dogs were chased off. W. S. Bambrick and John Methany, who were appointed appraisers following a report of the occurrence to Weirton authorities, are now ascertaining the amount of the damage.

Call For Volunteer Workers. Cleveland, July 7.—The Red Cross is again in need of volunteer workers—this time to work for local hospitals.

At the recommendation of the American Hospital association, 25,000,000 yards of gauze, the property of the American Red Cross, are to be distributed to the civil hospitals of the United States. Volunteers will be asked to aid in the making of surgical dressings, hospital garments and supplies. By offering their services Red Cross workers will greatly increase the value of the contribution and will be effectively demonstrating the appreciation of the American Red Cross for the co-operation of the hospitals during the war.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

Six Thousand, Seven Hundred Feet Of Thrills and Laughter

It took six solid months to make "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo," the biggest and best Douglas Fairbanks picture ever produced.

Six months, many thousand feet of film, hundreds of actors, magnificent sets, the lease of a complete railroad system, engines, cowboys, Mexicans, New York clubmen, pretty girls, villains and —Douglas Fairbanks!

"Doug" spent two and a half days making every minute of amusement that you get from this picture.

He's made you wait a long time for one of his new pictures, but now it's here!

It cost a quarter of a million to make. It means the best evening's enjoyment you ever had.

The longest, the most pretentious, the funniest, the most exciting Fairbanks picture ever attempted. Every foot of film is packed with punch and laughter. It'll make you gasp and laugh and applaud and yell for more when the 6,700 feet is run. And you'll talk about it for weeks!

"Doug" thought out a lot of new stunts during those six months. For instance:

He leaves the window of a flying train, climbs over the car's side to the roof, runs along the roof to the mail-coach, is swung from that car to the station by the mail conveyor like a sack of fourth-class mail, dropping onto the back of a horse that gallops madly off.

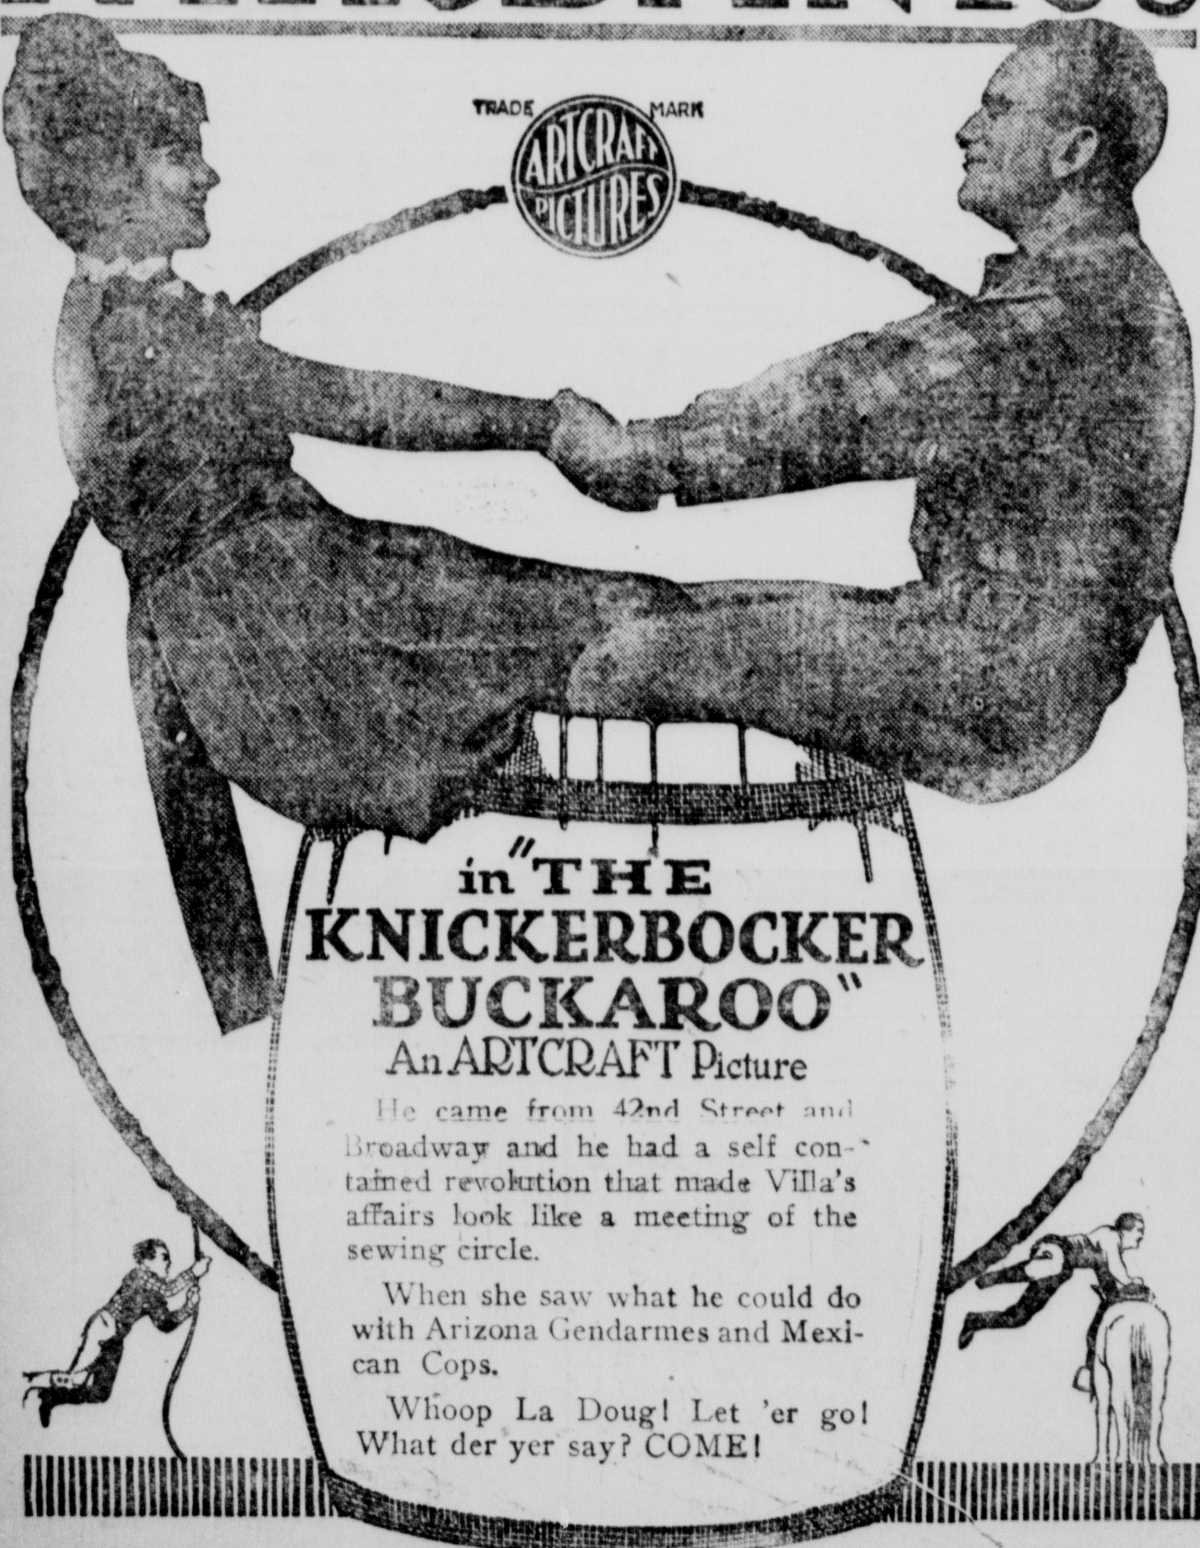

That's only one of his stunts! That's only one of the laughs! You can't afford to miss all the rest.
